ISLAMIC EDUCATION

INSTITUTE OF DEOBAND
(Darul - Ulum)

Speaking of the various Islamic established educational institutions as compared with the Christian educational systems of learning.

We shall take the University of Deoband viz: - "Darul-ulum Deoband" which teaches Islamic laws, jurisprudence and ahadith.

Situated 90 miles north of Delhi, Darul-ulum Deoband holds her priority in having served the Muslim community of India for almost 100 years.

Founded by Moulana Mohammed Qasim Nanotwee, grandfather of the present principal Qari Mohammed Tayeb, Darul-ulum Deoband until today continues to serve her students with undiminishing vigour. Every year 200 students graduate as fully qualified aaliems and about 70 as Hafeze-e-Quran. The University in addition to offering thorough courses in ahadith and jurisprudence from scratch to the most advanced levels also holds considerable reputation for her faculty of medicine. This deals with modern, as well as ancient medical systems. Plans are under way for its own hospital equipped with the most modern facilities for students interested in surgery. However the University is most well known for her excellent courses in jurisprudence.

An aaliem has to go through seven years of intensive, hard work. The first two years are dedicated towards extensive training in Arabic reading - writing - understanding - grammar - structure and speech. Since the entire course is in Arabic (though the medium of instruction is Urdu - Urdu being the only language common to most Muslims in India) considerable attention is devoted towards the first two years. No student, under any circumstances, may be admitted to the third year unless he has satisfactorily passed the steel-hard examinations of the first two years.

The first two years are the key. Once this has been accomplished, the rest may be pursued without much strain.

The third year deals with the basic principles of logic and philosophy. At this stage the student generally is capable of participating in debates and is encouraged to read books of different faiths and beliefs. The fourth year brings the student into studying the sea of the prophets sayings (ahadith) and their interpretations (jurisprudence) by Abu Hanifa, Shafei, Hambali, Maliki, Mohamed and Yusuf. The fifth year turns the sea into an ocean and the end of the sixth year drags the student from the midst of the turbulent oceanic waters and presents him on land, sparkling like a diamond.

The seventh year revises all the students work of the past and gives him the opportunity to ask any questions he has to clear his doubts.

The standard of education is high, second only to the Al-azhar of Cairo and according to some even higher than that of Al-azhar.

The University is strictly Islamic and supported by the generous donations of the Muslim community of the world, though the lions share is contributed by the Muslims of India.

All in all it provides tuition for approximately 3,000 students at one time. Boarding and lodging, free of cost, is available to some 2,500 students on the premises. The mosque in the building is spacious enough to accommodate the bulk of the students. The rest make use of the remaining 179 mosques to be found in this sacred town of perhaps less than 2 square miles in area and a population of 30,000.

For their recreation the students engage themselves in games like cricket, soccer, wrestling and others. The University holds an international atmosphere - students from all parts of India, Pakistan, Afghanistan, Burma, Tibet, Malaya and as far as South Africa form the students union of Darul-ulum Deoband.

THE ISLAMIC NEWS AND REVIEWS,

The Motive, Purpose and Objective of the ISLAMIC NEWS AND REVIEWS, is to present the Muslims with a weapon by which to defend ourselves and the name of the Holy Prophet Mohammad (Peace be on Him) from slanders by the Christians and the Christian Church and the unbelievers so that they may express their views through this paper in writing without any cost to them whatsoever. Because the average Christian periodicals are hostile enemies of Islam, notwithstanding the fact that the Revelation of Allah, our Lord, the Religion of the Prophets and all humanity who believe in God, in His Angels, in His Books, in His Prophets and in the hereafter, including themselves is "ISLAM", the Laws and the Commandments of their and our Lord, to which they are hostile enemies: And for this reason we the Muslims in America have never been officially accepted and acknowledged on equal footing by the officials of the government of the United States as they do the Christians and the Jews in official capacity. Therefore the Muslim minority in America never had a fair and equal chance and opportunity to speak, or to present our grievances, reputals on slanders, insults, humiliation, injustice and even deprivation. It is not the government, but the officials of the government. The Muslims have never been given the same rights that is given to the Jews and the Christians in their periodicals, radios, televisions, etc. These means of communication, which so very vital to all. Nevertheless, they are deined to us in the United States because they are controlled exclusivelyly by the Jews and the Christians economically. Hence the newspapers and its availability in ordinary use are denied the Muslim minority in America.

Hence these periods that are so vital as a means of communication are not available to the Muslim minority for practical communication, unless defamed, insulted, falsified, humiliated or belittled to self satisfaction.

WHAT ARE MUSLIMS AND THEIR BELIEFS

Muslims are people of all nationalities, race, tribes and color, with understanding hearts who believe in Allah the almighty God, Lord of the worlds. Creator, provider and sustainer of the Universe, the Giver and Taker of Life, and unto whom We as Muslims have surrendered ourselves Body and Soul. Islam, His Revelation containing the perfected and final Laws and commandments, revealed unto the Holy Prophet Mohammad (Peace be unto him) - the last of His Prophets in the Religion (Islam), of all believing humanity who believe in Allah's Angels, in His Revelations and His Books, in His Prophets and the Hereafter; And who believe in the resurrection of the dead and the Last Day; And who also believe in Heaven and Hell. This is the belief of every true Muslim; For which he lives and dies.

Love, Peace, Justice, Human Equality, Economic Security and the brotherhood of all mankind. But the belief in ALLAH as the one and only Supreme Creator and Sustainer of the Universe is our paramount and cherish belief, for which every true Muslim strives. We bear witness to ALLAH and all humanity that there is no other God except ALLAH. Allah has neither partner, son, mother, nor daughter, and He has neither image in the likeness of anything; creatures or beings. He hath created from nothing, by His Will and Command, and that there is nothing comparable nor like unto Him. We believe in the following five principles and the Pillars of Faith as revealed by ALLAH. The performance of five daily prayers, the paying of the Zakat, a tax which is levied upon all who are able for the benefit of the unfortunate. To fast during the holy month of Ramadan and to make the pilgrimage to Mecca. We believe

'ISLAM' - THE RELIGION OF ALL RELIGIONS

'Islam', the religion of all religions, was perfected by 'Allah' our Lord, the almighty God, Lord of the worlds, Creator and Sustainer of life, the Heavens, the Earth and all that lies between them. Then it was revealed through the angel, Gabrael, unto his last and final prophet Muhammad (P.B.U.H.) confirming all his previous revelations, books and teachings of his prophets as well as containing the final revelations of his Sacred Laws and Holy Commandments, for all to abide by and through which to praise and glorify Him and from which to acquire all knowledge of government and guidance for believing humanity.

The revelation of Allah regarding Islam, His Religion of Truth, reads as follows in the 'Holy Quran':

"It is He who hath sent His Apostle with guidance and the Religion of Truth, to proclaim it over all religions, even though the Pagan's may detest (it)."

(Quran Sura Tauba or Immunity)

The unbelievers will not accept this as true, although they know it to be the truth, because it is not for them to accept. Their destiny has already been cast. But the would be Christian believers may, providing they turn to 'Allah', their Lord who created them, gave them life and will take it back whenever it pleases Him. And for them this is written. Speaking of all religion as mentioned in this paragraph, it means man's self created religion in which to worship his self created God. "That Allah, our Lord God, creator, Provider and Sustainer of Life, which is the very breath we breathe when we emerge from the womb." This proves in itself that everyone born of the womb is born by the Will and Command of "Allah" - his or her Creator, the Giver and Taker of Life, Peace and Death. "And all that is born of the womb is born free and equal without sin as servants and Messengers of their and our Lord." Yet many know this to be the Truth and they will not, nor can not accept it. And why? This is the question!

To know the true Nature of our Creator is to accept ISLAM, the revelation of Allah, our Lord with His perfected Religion in which to worship Him, praise and to glorify His holy name and in which to acquire all true knowledge in the pursuit of life. "No one can worship God, his, or her Creator unless he or she knows the true nature of Allah, his or her Lord and Creator." Therefore, all would be believers are invited to accept (ISLAM) the revelation of your Lord and establish in His name for the good of your own soul. In order to save mankind from total destruction by the Wrath of God all true believing Muslims and people of our world must unite and implement the Laws of Allah, our Lord, as inscribed in the sacred pages of the holy Quran which is Truth. For Truth shall last and falsehood shall perish, said: Allah, the Lord of Abraham and the Prophets. This must be made known that according to ISLAM as inscribed in the Sacred Pages of the holy Quran the teachings of Christianity relative to the religion of God and His Prophets and their teachings are all false and misleading, and could cause the Wrath of God to pay a visit to humanity.

Islam has always been and until today remains the simplest way of life. This can crystal clearly be seen from the situation in Africa.

The Africans of today are judging afresh the spiritual systems which have so deeply influenced the life of mankind. They find themselves facing two major religions, viz: - Christianity and Islam. Though the Christian missionaries stationed in Africa outnumber the Muslim missionaries by far, most Africans are seeking refuge in Islam than in Christianity or their traditional tribal heritage. This is because of Islam's simplicity and sincerity.

While the Christians invite people to believe in one God, three Gods, one God in three persons and 3 persons in one God, creating a network of complicated issues. Islam reveals the simple truth of one and only one existing Supreme being "Allah", with no associates whatsoever.

The universal acceptance of Islam can be seen at a glance on statistics and observations. Statistics conclude the total Muslim population of the world to be about 600,000,000 as against 720,000,000

Christians. Observations show 90% of the world's Muslim population as practicing Islam and having a sound knowledge of their faith as against 50% of Christians with atheistic tendencies; and perhaps 99% not understanding the doctrine of trinity. All this accounts for Islam's simplicity and Christianity's complications

Sincerity and Equality

The second of the sea of factors accounting for Islam's God given right of proclaiming the truth is its sincerity and equality.

Said the Prophet (P. B. U. H.) "No Arab is superior to a non-Arab except by virtue of his faithfulness!" The above quotation explains itself, eliminating all forms of prejudice and distinction, giving credit only to those who comply with the laws of their Lord for has he bestowed upon us not countless blessings.

Islam invites her followers to bow to their Lord in congregational ceremony standing side by side, shoulder to shoulder, irrespective of race or color.

The people of Africa will not accept Christianity as presented to them. Why should they want to consider themselves second-class citizens? How can you make them understand why they should attend segregated church performances based on color and not on merits? How can you explain to them that if Jesus Christ was to descend in Cape Town he would not be allowed to enter a white church?

Slavery

THINK OF SLAVERY ONLY AS A BAD DREAM

The Black, Brown and Coloured people in America of slave origin and ancestors should think of slavery only as a bad dream. Do not apply your ancestors past experience to your present day and future life. The social, economic and commercial life of humanity has changed. You must think, work and plan for your future and your future generations. A very good and sound education is most vital and necessary. The color of a man's skin has nothing to do with his social, economic, scientific, commercial and industrial life and success as a Muslim, which is the most important of all. Secondly, a sound and good education. I do not mean just to read and write. This is only elementary. I mean a good and sound college education, or its equivalent. You must think individually for your self-preservation and that of your own family and the Muslims, who are the one and only true believers who would understand your problems and rally to your assistance.

You must turn away from Christianity, the religious society that had enslaved your ancestors without Mercy, or compassion. Which prove in itself that Christianity is not religion, and that it has no direct relationship with the Almighty God, Lord of the worlds whatsoever. It is only a social order and an economic society. With certain religious aspects that serve the purpose of the European nations. The religion of the European nations is not the Religion of Allah, your and our Lord, the Almighty God, Lord of the worlds, nor His Prophets. And neither is it the Religion of Jesus, the Messiah, Son of Mariam. Your one true and only Religion is ISLAM, the Religion of the Prophet Abraham, Ismail, Issac, Jacob, Moses, David, Soloman, Jesus and Mohammad (Peace be on them). If you are still in doubt, know this, that Jesus was neither a Jew nor a Christian but a Muslim, and an Apostle of God, and not a son of God as you have been taught to believe. The teachings you have received thus are far from Christianity but for very few exceptions. The goal was not to put you on par with them, but merely to acquire sufficient knowledge to serve their purpose and their need. Your only salvation as a people is "ISLAM", which is your one true and only religion related to your Lord and His Prophets.....

The Institute of the Islamic Mission of America was established especially in the United States especially to propagate the religion of our Lord unto those who would believe, and who do believe in God, in His Prophets and in the hereafter. ISLAM contains the one true and only Law for the righteous government and guidance of all humanity who believe in God. It is now available to teach you your religion so that as servants of your Lord you will be able to discharge your duty "unto him".

All would be believers are invited to accept Islam, and all descendents of Abraham, of Ismail and Issac and of Jacob and of the Tribes of Israel to return to Islam, the Religion of Abraham, your fathers' fathers to whom you have sworn allegiance on their dying beds that you will not die unless as Muslim, bowing to Allah, the (One) true God in the Faith of ISLAM. Have you forgotten? What evil had lead you away from truth and righteousness? You will surely cause destruction to be-fall humanity unless you return to Islam and establish worship in the name of your Lord.

Calling all Africans, African origin, Oriental and Asiatic origin who are now calling yourselves Christians and Jews, Catholics and Protestants to return to ISLAM, the Religion of your Lord, and His Prophets. This is the way by which you can ever hope to regain your heritage, your self-respect, your dignity, peace and love of those who had enslaved your ancestors. Stop calling yourselves Negroes. Stop hating those who are calling themselves White; everyone was created free and equal like yourselves. You must learn to live together in peace as human beings, and as servants of your Lord, Convert your churches into Mosques, and worship your Lord in the same manner that your fathers' fathers worshipped (ALLAH), your and my Lord. It is about time that you seek education so that you may know yourselves your duty to your Lord, to your parents, to your children and to your neighbors. Slavery is over. It is only an unbeliever that will allow his or herself to be enslaved. Fear none but God, your Lord unto Whom is your return in Death. Allah guide and protect all of us. Peace be on you and the blessings of Allah....

KUWAIT AND UNITED ARAB REPUBLIC STRESSED NEED FOR FULL MUSLIM UNITY AND ISLAMIC CORPORATION

His Highness, Sheikh Sabah Al-Salim Al-Sabah, Amir of Kuwait traveled from Kuwait to the United Arab Republic of Egypt to see and to speak to President Gamal Abdul Nasser, President of the United Arab Republic in search of Peace and Islamic Unity amongst the Muslims and the Muslim Nations. The text of the communique

"In response to an invitation from UAR President Gamal Abdul Nasser His Highness Sheikh Sabah el Salem el Sabah, Emir of Kuwait, paid an official visit to the UAR from April 12 to 16, 1966.

HUMAN RIGHTS

Our God is not only the God of the Muslims but the Creator and Sustainer of all humanity. He is the Creator and Nourisher of all the worlds.

"O mankind! We created you from a single pair of a male and a female, and made you into nations and tribes so that you may know each other (not that you may despise each other). Verily the most honoured of you in the sight of God is he who is the most righteous among you." (Quran 49: 13)

The Holy Prophet explained the meaning of this verse when he declared: "I bear testimony that all human beings are brothers to one another" (Abu Daud).

"O men! Verily your God is One, and verily your father is one. An Arab over a non-Arab, a non-Arab over an Arab, the white over the black or the black over the white has no superiority except by dint of righteousness" (Musnad Ahmad bin Hanbal).^{all}

THE FEAR OF THE HEREAFTER IN THE HEARTS OF THE COMPANIONS OF THE PROPHET AND THE MUSLIMS

Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique

(razi-yal-laa-hu 'an-hu)

He is that noble personality:

who did not consume liquor or worship idols even in the days of ignorance;

who was highly trustworthy, lover of justice, helper of the poor, an example of hospitality and a symbol of ethical virtues;

who embraced Islam in the teeth of hostile atmosphere, when the whole population was in opposition and patiently tolerated all atrocities and cruelties let loose on him for accepting Islam;

who placed his entire wealth at the feet of the Prophet on the occasion of the Holy War of 'Tabuk'; who led the Muslims in prayer in the life of the Prophet and who successfully discharged his obligations as a real ally and associate of the Prophet in the valley of Sh'ob Abu Talib, in the cave of 'Sur' and other dangerous places;

about whom Hazrat Muhammad (Sal-lal-laa-hu 'alai-hi wa aa-li-hi wa-salam) said :

"I could not pay back for his kindnesses. I shall pay off on the Doomsday; and had I made any one my 'friend' he would be Abu Bakr."

whose house-windows were allowed to open in the court-yard of Masjid-e-Nabawi while those of all other Companions were ordered to be closed ;

who affirmed the event of Ascension of the Prophet without any second thought or hesitation and who was awarded the title of "Siddiq" by the sacred tongue of the Prophet.

about whom Hazrat Umar (razi-yal-la-ho 'an-hu) remarked:

"If the faith of all the people of the world is kept in one side of the scale and that of Abu Bakr in the other, then the side of Hazrat Abu Bakr would be heavy beyond doubt."

who was the first to be honoured with the Caliphate and succession to the Prophet after the latter's death ;

Whose personality is the best after the prophet ; his condition was such that with the fear of the Doomsday and imagination of the Hereafter, that the pupils of his eyes grew yellow by constant weeping and the flowing tears made tracks of two blue lines on his face.

During his illness, he asked his daughter, Hazrat Ayesha (razi-yal-laa-hu 'an-ha):

"Listen ! One milching she-camel, one vessel, one sheet and one slave-girl, which were given to me from the Public Treasury, should be returned to the Public Treasury."

When, after the death of Hazrat Abu-Bakr, these things were sent back to Hazrat Umar for depositing in the Public Treasury, he remarked :

"O Abu Bakr ! (Allah's blessing be on you); you have left a very hard example for your successor."

At the time of death, Hazrat Abu Bakr said :

"Umar bin Khattab did not agree and arranged a stipend for me from the Public Treasury. Upto now six thousand Dirhams of Public Treasury have been spent on me. All right ! after selling my that orchard, you deposit this amount in the Public Treasury."

About coffin-cloth he said :

"My daughter Ayesha ! the same clothes which I am wearing will be my coffin-cloth. At one place it is coloured with saffron, you shall wash it off."

Hazrat Ayesha said, "Dear father ! this is old."

Hazrat Abu Bakr replied, "This old and tattered cloth is enough."

Hazrat Abu Bakr left this world with a clean and untarnished record and he never gave an office of profit to any of his relatives during the period of his Caliphate.

One day seeing a bird on the branch of a tree, Hazrat Abu Bakr remarked :

"O bird ! be happy. By God, my heart wishes to be like you. You sit on any tree you wish and eat whatever fruit you like; neither you have to give any test nor to undergo any torment."

Sometimes he said weepingly :

"I wish I were a tree of the wood which should have been cut; or blade

GOD, JESUS AND CHRISTIANITY

Christianity and its teachings is false, unGodly, and misleading.

The teachings of Christianity is false. Because it teaches that for which there is no forgiveness, that Jesus the Messiah, son of Mariam, the Apostle of Allah, our Lord is God, and the son of God. For which God said: He cannot forgive, and for which Paradise will be denied, and their abode will be hell fire. An evil journey in deed."

JESUS THE MESSIAH

JESUS the Messiah son of Mariam the Apostle of God was neither a Jew nor a Christian. But a Muslim and an Apostle of Allah, Lord and His Messenger. And that (Jesus the Messiah Peace be on Him) was not crucified nor died in the the cross as the Christians have been made to believe. But God took him up unto Himself. (Quran)

Selemane Mamede, a Law student is organizing a world-wide campaign to raise finance for the building of the first Mosque in Portugal since the 13th Century. While there are only about twenty Muslims living in Lisbon, it is considered that this City being the Capital of a number of Territories throughout the world, including Mozambique and Portuguese Guinea, with a total population of almost one million Muslims is sufficient reason to justify the development of this project.

Further information with reference to this worthy venture can be obtained by contacting Mr. Mamede at the Address set out below.

A Brief History of the Spread of Islam in Malaysia

The All-Malaya Muslim Welfare Organization

Islam introduced into Malaya at the end of the 14th century C.E.

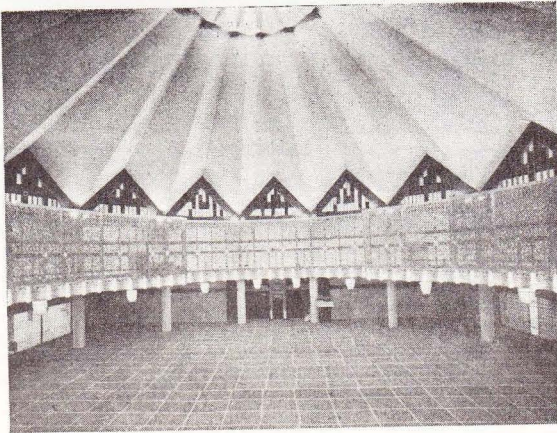

Islam, the official religion of Malaysia, has been in that country for over 500 years. Before its introduction to Malaysia it was already being practised by people in some other parts of the Malay archipelago. Marco Polo, who travelled to the countries of Asia, has related of his visit to Perlak (Ferlec), a country on the east coast of Sumatra in 1292 C.E. He reported that the people of Perlak at the time practised Islam.

A national level Qur'an Reading competition was held for two nights on 27 and 28 August 1965 at the Masjid Negara, Kuala Lumpur. The competition, which was declared open by the Deputy Prime Minister, Tun 'Abdul Razak Ibn Husain, on 27 August, was held in conjunction with the official opening of the National Mosque of Malaysia. Our picture shows Puan Rahman receiving the trophy from the Prime Minister, the Tunku 'Abdul Rahman

This competition is held annually at Kuala Lumpur in which leading Qur'an readers from several countries of Asia and the Middle East take part

A tombstone found on the east coast of Sumatra has an inscription of Sultan Malik al-Saleh, the Sultan of Pasai-Samudra, who died in 1297 C.E. This shows that not only the people there were Muslims but their Sultan was also a Muslim. The famous explorer Ibn Battutah also came to Pasai in 1345 C.E. At that time Islam had already spread to the countries around Pasai.

In Malaya the earliest Muslim inscription was found in Trengganu. The inscription shows that a group of Muslims had lived in Trengganu in the year 1326 or 1386 C.E. But it appears that Islam had not yet been well established and had not spread to other areas.

Islam in the Malay world began to spread rapidly to the territories of the Malacca Kingdom when it was at the height of its glory.

No exact date can be given when Islam was introduced into Malacca, although some historians place it in the year 1414 C.E. But it is most likely that the Malays of Malacca were in contact with Muslim peoples at the end of the 14th century C.E. An old Chinese record mentions that the first time the Chinese Emperor heard of the existence of the Malay Kingdom of Malacca was from Indian Muslim traders of Southern India who had gone to China in the year 1403 C.E.

It seems that intercourse between the Malays of Malacca and the Muslim traders had resulted in the acceptance of Islam by the Malays. The record of a Chinese explorer who visited Malacca in the year 1413 C.E. relates that the Malays of Malacca were of the Islamic faith.

Raja Kechil Besar accepts Islam

In the Malay annals, Raja Kechil Besar, the fourth Sultan of Malacca, was the first Sultan in the State to embrace Islam. After his conversion his name was changed to Sultan Muhammad Shah. By referring to Chinese sources written in the 15th century and comparing it with that in the Malay annals, it may be safely concluded that this conversion took place at the beginning the 15th century C.E. or earlier, towards the end of the 14th century C.E.

Since the time of the conversion of the Sultan Muhammad Shah to the Islamic faith Islam has spread far and wide throughout Malaysia. Malacca, the centre of the biggest Malay kingdom in South-East Asia, then became the Islamic centre of that time. From Malacca the religion spread to the other Malay States. The spread of Islam in Malacca was one of the factors which brought about the downfall of the Majapahit kingdom. Without doubt it was the Malays of Malaya who were the propagators of Islam to the other regions of the Malay world.

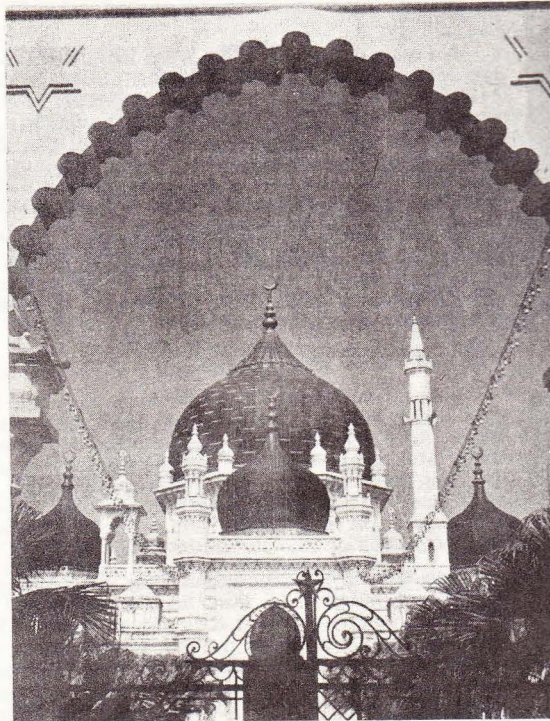

Islam's influence on law and literature during the 15th century C.E.

Since the 15th century, the study of Islam in Malacca had been seriously pursued to a very advanced stage. The Malay Annals describe about religious missions having been sent from Malacca to Pasai to participate in discussions on religious matters and Islamic philosophy. The Sultan of Malacca right down to his subjects engaged themselves in the study of Islam. The honour placed on Islam was great indeed. This is shown by stories about the special position enjoyed by the teachers of Islam among the Malay community in Malacca. Of greater significance was the story in the Malay Annals about the Muslim figure of Hadzarmaut sending a book, Dar al-Mazlum, to Sultan Mansur Shah of Malacca. This book was received by the Malacca Sultan with full honour, carried in procession around Malacca, and later sent to Pasai to be translated into Malay.

Apart from the book Dar al-Mazlum, the extent of the development of Islam in Malacca can be judged from the existence of story books connected to Islam which have been translated into Malay. Two of the books which are known to have existed during the Malacca Sultanate were the Hikayat Muhammad 'Ali Hanafiyyah and the Hikayat Amir Hamzah. According to the Malay Annals, both of these books had been very familiar to the Malay warriors. This shows that the influence of Islam in the Malay world in the 15th century C.E. was not confined to religion alone, but had affected the Malay literature as well.

The Zahrah Mosque in Alor Star, Kedah

In another aspect, Islam had also made its influence felt in legal procedures. In the book Hukum Qanun Melaka, which had been used by Malay Governments in the 15th century C.E., there had been many elements of Islam.

The attempts of the Portuguese and Dutch fail to influence the Malays in favour of Christianity

After the Malacca Sultanate had been defeated by the Portuguese in 1511 C.E., the centre of Islam shifted to Aceh, Sumatra, Indonesia. This does not, however, mean that Islam had lost its vitality in Malaya. On the contrary, Islam continued to gain strength, as was proved by the writings of the Portuguese at that time about their failure to spread Christianity among the Malays. While the Portuguese were in Malacca, the Muslim Sultanate carried on its government, at least in Johore, Pahang and Perak.

The Malay kingdom in Johore was controlled by the descendants of the Malacca Sultans. The Sultans in Johore did not take the defeat of Malacca easily. Various steps had been taken to wrest the rule of Malacca from the hands of the Portuguese. Some of these steps might have been taken by political and economic motives, but at least one of these movements was based more on the elements of Islam than anything else. This was when the Malay Kingdom of Johore went hand in hand with the Kingdom of Aceh to launch an attack on the Portuguese in Malacca.

Portuguese rule in Malacca collapsed in 1641 C.E. The defeat of the Portuguese was the result of the co-operation between the Dutch and the Malay Kingdom of Johore. Although the Dutch had occupied Malacca for nearly 200 years, Christianity was unable to influence the Malays, who still adhered to Islam.

The kingdoms of Perak and Johore under the patronage of their Muslim rulers

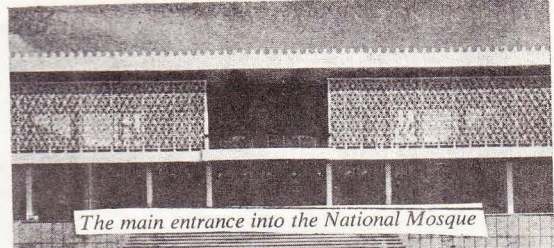

The Malay Kingdom of Perak, for instance, had absorbed many of the elements of Islam in its laws — the laws which have been widely known as "The 999 Laws of Perak". Evidence to show that the Malays were practising the Islamic faith could be found in the book Misa Melayu, an historical

The Mosque at Pekan, Pahang, a small Malay town near the mouth of the Pahang River, and the home of the Sultan of Pahang account of Perak which was written in the 18th century C.E. between 1756-1770 C.E., had built a mosque as a place of worship. His Highness celebrated the birthday of the Prophet Muhammad on a grand scale. The occasion was not only confined to the higher circle but was celebrated by the whole populace. Besides, His Highness in his daily routine practised Melayu, "After the early morning prayer His Highness sat at the Balai Lipu . . . after the noon prayer the Sultan sat in audience in the presence of royalties and dignitaries — religious personnel and the poor. . ."

In the early 17th century C.E. the Malay Kingdom of Johore had under its sovereignty several surrounding territories and had built its capital in Riau. The Johore/Riau Kingdom had then become a Muslim centre especially in the 19th century. Members of the royal family had gone on pilgrimages to Mecca and returned to Riau with well-known religious teachers. Many Sultans and their regents had shown a strong inclination towards Islam. These dignitaries had practised Islam and among other things they had built mosques and had either invited or engaged religious teachers to spread Islam in Riau, as recorded in the Tuhfat al-Nafis, "The Regent set sail for home in Riau. His Highness built palaces and mosques and studied religious teachings from those who were well versed . . . in the subject. Furthermore he was much attached to his kinsman Raja Haji Ali, from whom he learned the concept of religion. . ."

PEACE AND THE MERCY OF ALLAH AND HIS BLESSINGS ABIDE WITH YOU BOTH AND GOODWILL

I do like these two men, and the pictures of these two men. These two brave courageous men. Why are they not friends? And why can they not be friends. Are they not Muslims and brothers in ISLAM? Are they not of the same, God and Religion? And of the same Laws, Principles, Precepts and Ethics? Then why are they hostile enemies? What made them hostile to each other. These two great wise and courageous men. King Hussein of Jordan, and President Gamal Abdu Nasser of the United Arab Republic. Now Islam needs them as never before to unify Islamic Unity amongst the Muslims. Palestine must be returned to its rightful owners. The Palestine refugees must be allowed to return to their home and land. Peace must return to the holy land. The holy and Sacred Mosque and Shrines must be protected, defended and secured. In the name of Allah I do pray that peace be reestablished between my two admirers. I wish for the peace, success and good health.

He said that was why they stood unitedly and solidly behind the heroic fighters of Kashmir and all other colonised lands.

His Majesty King Faisal exchanges conversation with his distinguished guest President Osman at the rest parlour at Jeddah airport upon arrival of the latter in Jeddah for a state visit to the Kingdom.

HUMANITY WAS CREATED FROM A SINGLE MALE AND FEMALE

ALLAH, our Lord, the Almighty God, Lord of the worlds Created humanity from a single male and female and made us into Family, Tribes and Nations so that we may know each other. And all that Allah, our Lord hath created were created for the benefit of humanity, and Allah created humanity for Himself to be His earthly servants and messengers. To worship him, praise him and glorify His holy name, to do good and to avoid evil, to live in peace with each other for the love of each other for the glory of God and for the nourishment of our own Souls.

We human beings must learn to know ourselves and the purpose for us being on this earth! Why were we created, why we live and why we must die. We must accept the fact that we are Servants and Messengers of Allah, our Lord, God and Creator. We must also accept the fact that we are both Agents and Representatives of Allah, our Lord on earth. And because of these appointments and assignments of our Lord He hath appointed two of His Heavenly Angels to keep a true, just and accurate account of our every action, words and deed while on earth, and this record will be presented to us in the Last Day in Judgement after death. While many will not accept this statement to be the truth, and others who know them to be the truth, however, they will not accept it. Because they cannot accept it, they are the unbelievers. They are the ones without understanding hearts, who believe not. They are the agents of evil, and the companions of Fire in the hereafter.

This is the famous Dome of the Rock in Jerusalem completely redecorated within and without in which ID prayer was held recently.

The Dome of the Rock in Jerusalem Islam's second holiest Shrine.

WHAT IS ISLAM AND A MUSLIM

We believe in the following five principles and the Pillars of Faith as revealed by ALLAH. The performance of five daily prayers, the paying of the Zakat, a tax which is levied upon all who are able for the benefit of the unfortunate. To fast during the holy month of Ramadan and to make the pilgrimage to Mecca. We believe in ALLAH as one, in His Angels, in His Revelations and His Books, in His Prophets, in the examination of the dead, in the Hereafter and in the Resurrection of the Dead.

We also believe in the human rights of each person, in his or her freedom, Dignity, property rights and the rights to self determination of each individual, in conformity with the Laws and the Commandments of Allah, as revealed unto Mohammad, (Peace and the Mercy of Allah be on him) in Islam, and as inscribed in the Sacred pages of the Holy Quran. We believe also in prayer for forgiveness, for Blessings, for favour and for guidance.

We Muslims believe in human equality, justice, love, fraternity, equal opportunity and brotherhood of all humanity regardless of race, tribe, color or nationality. Because all things including ourselves belong to God and are Servants and Messengers of God.

The unbelievers and the hypocrites are the enemies of God, and the enemies of God are also the enemies of those who believe. They are the agents of Shaitan, the mischief maker. He made a covenant with Allah, that he will have the most of humanity with him in hell than Allah will have in Paradise in the Last Day. "Now that you know the Truth, you must be very careful of your companion and associate." Know the Truth because Allah said "Truth shall Remain and Falsehood shall Perish"

PEACE WITHOUT BLOODSHED IS A POSSIBILITY WITH THE MUSLIMS AND THE JEWS OF PALESTINE

Palestine, the holy land of our forefathers, the land of the Natiwity of the Arab, of Abraham and his descendants, the birthplace of the Prophets of Allah, our Lord, the burial places of many martyrs and holy people, the tombs of God's many Prophets, Sacred and Holy Shrines belongs only to the believers - the followers of the Prophets, Descendants of Abraham, Ismail, Issac, Jacob, the Tribes and those who have kept the Faith. Not those who have turned away from the Religion of Abraham, the Hebrew Nations and its people, not those who became Jews of Judea.

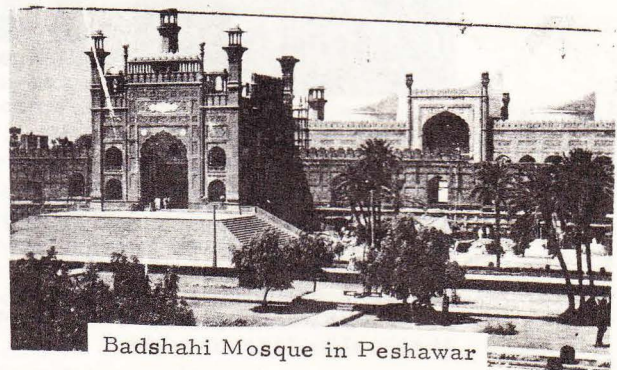

Certainly! There will be peace between the Arab Muslims of Palestine and their almost blood brothers of the Jews of Israel, who were once known as the sons and daughters of Jacob, or Israil. There are the ones who have turned away from ISLAM, the Religion of Abraham, and who have debased their souls with folly, and became Jews of Judea. After they had sworn to their forefathers on their dying beds that they will never die unless as Muslims, bowing to the one true God in the Faith of Islam. They turned away and wandered all over the earth for over three hundred years and became servants of servants, and slaves of slaves, and after they have lost their true identity, they returned to the land of their ancestors, of which they have no claim. Allah said: "Truth shall last and falsehood shall perish" And so will be those who have taken up the swords against the rightful owners of the holy land of Palestine. They are wrong; And as such they shall perish. But not by the swords, but by the Wrath of their Lord they shall perish. All the Muslims have to do is to turn to Allah who is the judge and the rewarder.

Insha Allah, and in the name of Allah the Palestine refugees shall return to their homes, their lands and their properties. But the Muslims of Palestine must prove themselves worthy of this blessings of Allah, through devotion to prayer and sacrifices with patience. Allah is the Knower, the Seer, the Hearer, the Thinker, the Schemer, the Wise, the Judge and the Master of the Day of Judgement. And Allah is the rewarder, the Giver and Taker of Life, Peace and Death. I am asking the Muslims of Palestine to prayer and make sacrifices and leave the rest to Allah. Then wait, watch and see.

The report was published in the Moroccan dailies on Dec. 16th. It was based on an item in the Chinese newspaper "Tin Tin Yat Pao", which said that an "ultimatum" from the Red Guards calling on Chinese Muslims to give up their religion was pasted on walls in Peking.

But the money and all these things are in the hands of the Christians and the Jews, who are in control of the Telephone, the Radio, the Banks, the Television and all periodicals and other means of making money: And in order for the limited Muslim population of this Christian country to get money in any quantity we must use the same method the Christians and the Jews are using. In response to the Motamar's appeal, the 1400th Anniversary of the Revelation of the Holy Quran is to be observed all over the world from the Ramadan of 1387 to the Ramadan of 1388, i.e. December 1967 to December 1968. As in other Muslim countries, a National Committee has been formed in Pakistan to organise nation-wide celebrations. The President of this Committee is Al-Haj Abd-Allah Zahiruddin (Lalmian).

QURAN IN GOLD THREAD

Part of Pakistan's contribution to the celebration of the 14th Centenary is to be the production of a Holy Quran woven in golden thread. A Council for this purpose was inaugurated last July with Mr. Abd-Allah Zahiruddin Lalmeah as Chairman. Field Marshal Md. Ayub Khan, the President of Pakistan, is the Patron. The President, while inaugurating this Council, had made a personal donation of Rs. 3000 and called for contributions. Rs 567,000/ had been collected on the spot. The best cloth and best thread were secured and many Huffaz, Ulema and Qari were engaged in the project.

The Bismillah Ceremony of beginning the weaving with golden thread the verses of the Holy Quran was performed by Gen. Musa, the Governor of West Pakistan on the 27th Ramadan at Karachi.

KUWAIT

THE STATE OF KUWAIT ELECTED

The United Nations General Assembly elected Kuwait for membership in the United Nations Economic and Social Council.

Cultural Cooperation Between The United States and Kuwait has been effected. His Excellency, Khaled Al-Massoud, Minister of Education, spent ten days in Washington and New York, discussing the possibility of Cultural cooperation between the United States and Kuwait. He had a meeting with Mr. Raymond here, assisting secretary of State for Eastern and South East Asian affairs—a deaf for a cultural agreement has been submitted for signature and it is under study. In accordance with the terms of this agreement, the United States will supply Kuwait with experts and technicians

The Minister also announce that the Kuwait University will open late in November this year, and a number of educators from various American Universities will be invited to the inauguration ceremonies. The Minister also called on Mr. U Thant, and thanked the Secretary General for the full cooperation Kuwait has received from different United Nations organs, and particularly from UNESCO.

Before his departure he held a press conference at the Kuwait Consulate and had an opportunity during his stay to meet more than a hundred Kuwait students in this country.

WOMEN OF KUWAIT

A successful event was the tea given by Kuwaiti ladies to wives and ladies of the United Nations family. Some 300 attended the affair at the United Nations Women's Club in New York. A film on Kuwait was shown and there was also an exhibition of Kuwaiti arts and craft, for reading literature and poetry. Woman with a more extroverted nature may find participation in community activities or charity work more rewarding. Those women whose preference is to have interests outside the home and community service are pursuing careers as teachers, writers, librarians and nurses. A few women have entered the professions of medicine, science and law. Other women are in banking and merchandising. Many women are also employed by the Government in both professional and clerical positions. In addition to these interests, most share a mutual interest—regardless of sex, race, or religion. And today, in Kuwait, all of us see the social difficulties which arise when only the boys are sent to school. Many ladies from non-Muslim cultures have expressed to me an interest in the practice of polygamy. Today, this is almost non-existent in Kuwait, with a few rare, unusual cases. These are normally due to the condition of the wife, which prevents normal married life. Our religion is firm, however, in insisting that this practice only be permitted on the condition that the husband be equally fair to all his

Arab Dancers Lauded

A colorful Lebanese folklore dance troupe which gave nightly performances at the Lebanese Pavilion at the World's Fair was praised by critic Walter Terry of the New York Herald Tribune.

Terry said: "The Al-Jarrar Lebanese folklore dancers . . . do not pretend to be professionals; they are mostly college students, but they have been well-trained and dance with a spirit which makes the onlooker wish he were a participant."

"The Jarrars have done an excellent job of editing Arab folk materials and transposing them to the stage. And they have also created scenes which suggest Lebanese life around a fire or in their snow-capped mountains or in their village festivals."

"All is simple technically, but variety is achieved through the energetic dances of the nomad Bedouins, the Sword Dance with its mock battle and the striking of sword against shields, the zip and joy of the national Dabkeh, the lusty actions of an all-male unit as contrasted to the lovely lyricism of the ladies in a handkerchief dance, and even, a scene in which white-clad girls suggest the drifting, falling snows of Lebanon's mountains."

"The steps are interesting, the costumes striking, the spirit infectious and the dancing eyes of the Lebanese girls quite enchanting. It is good news that the Al-Jarrar Dancers, with such a brief run late in the World's Fair season, will be back with us next spring."

A glimpse of Arab and Islamic culture in native dancing in traditional Folklore costume dancing and entertaining. Here we have Kuwait, Syria and Lebanon

MUSLIMS

When the condition of the world has reached to such a dirty state of affairs, the responsibility of the people who believe in Allah and His Prophet; who are given the title of "Virtue for Nation"; who give the message to do good deeds and abstain from the evil; who disseminate and publish the teachings of Islam, increases. The reason being that on the Doomsday, when the people will be collected and examined for their worldly deeds they will also be interrogated about the infidelity, polytheism, irreligiosity, paganism spreading in the world during their sojourn in this ephemeral world.

In light of the above interrogation, all the men of the world in general and Muslims in particular are required to examine the ever-deteriorating condition of the people of the world and find ways and means to avoid the calamities which made the past nations their target. The best way is that first we should ask the forgiveness of Allah for our sins and mistakes and be ashamed of the past deeds. After that we should reform our deeds and repent from sins and violation of Divine commands. This is the only way.

----- FOREVER REMEMBERED -----

Quaid-e-Azam's birthday anniversary

President's message

The nation celebrated Quaid-e-Azam's birthday on December 25 with a spirit of remembrance and dedication to his ideal of a united and progressive Pakistan.

President Ayub in a message to the nation on the occasion called for individual and collective efforts with determination and dedication to build Pakistan as a progressive nation.

The national flag flew on all public buildings and the people offered special prayers for the strength and prosperity of Pakistan and for the early liberation of Indian held Kashmir.

Quran Khwani, boy scout and girl guide rallies, meetings, symposia, processions and distribution of sweets among the children and patients in hospitals were some of the highlights of the day.

In Karachi, thousands of people, men, women and children visited Quaid-e-Azam's birth place at Khadar and his mazar to pay respects to the Father of the Nation.

Miss Fatima Jinnah visited the mazar and offered fateha. Wreaths were placed on the mazar on behalf of the local administration, Karachi Municipal Corporation and various social and cultural organizations.

Meetings were held in which speeches were made on the ideals and achievements of Quaid-e-Azam.

The Quaid's mazar and his birthplace were illuminated.

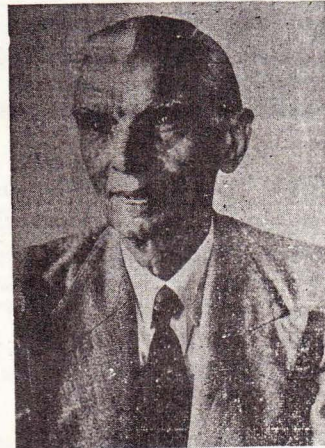

In Islamabad, the Pakistan Council Centre held a special meeting on the occasion. Speakers from both wings of the country took part and spoke on the life of the Founder of Pakistan.

President's message

The President in his message said: "We celebrate today the birthday of our beloved Quaid-i-Azam, the founder of our nation.

"While it is a befitting occasion for a grateful people to rejoice, it should afford us an opportunity to reflect on the secrets of Quaid's success and his great achievement. Such a study will, no doubt, serve as a source of great inspiration and guidance for us.

"To my mind, the secrets of Quaid-i-Azam's success in achieving Pakistan were three. One, he was above to identify his goal clearly. Two, he worked for it with a single-minded devotion. And, three, he was sustained and supported in his struggle by the selfless devotion and support of the people.

"As an independent people, we are clear about our goal. Which is to build Pakistan into a united and progressive nation. This goal is no less difficult to reach than the achievement of Pakistan itself, we can do so if we, individually and collectively, strive for it with determination and dedication.

"For nations and individuals, great leaders serve as beacons of light. Success is achieved by emulating their examples. Let us, therefore, resolve afresh to follow in the footsteps of Quaid-i-Azam Mohammad Ali Jinnah, the founder of this great nation".

Iqbal's Analysis of the Causes of Muslims Becoming Stagnant in the Intellectual Field

Iqbal's view of education

The life of a nation depends on its economic, industrial, social and cultural achievements, but the foundation of all economic growth, scientific and technological advancement, is education, which is a problem of paramount importance for every developing nation. Education is the pivot of all phases of developments and it is measured by the character, ideology and a high degree of cultural attainment.

What is Iqbal's contribution? How far did he go ahead in making us realize that education has to be radically changed and given a new spirit to produce free citizens endowed with the spirit of "Dare and Live". The Qa'id-i-A'zam Muhammad 'Ali Jinnah of Pakistan has rightly said:

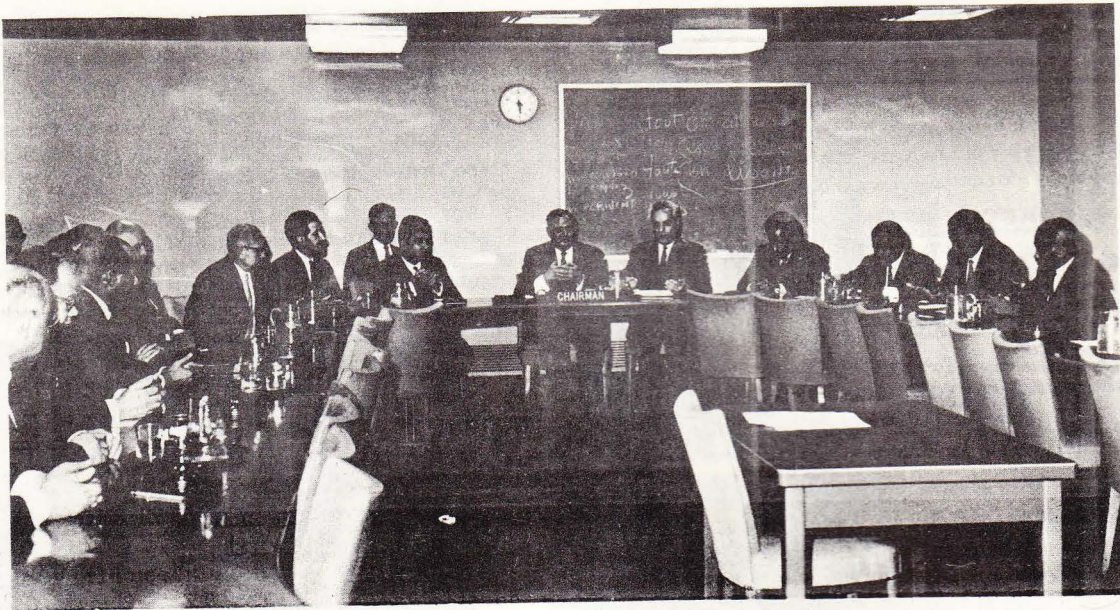

Dr. Muhammad Iqbal (d. 1938 C.E.)

Islamic body urges Kashmir solution

It will not be out of place to mention here that the plans, schemes and projects of world governments which are formulated to save the nation from numerous evils and vices cannot be successfully operated or if operated cannot give the desired result. It must be remembered that these schemes and projects can be of use only if we beg the forgiveness of Allah first for our past doings on one hand and sincerely pledge to abstain from them in future on the other. We should also seek His help to guide us on the true path. These things are essential because all calamities or revolutions take place by the Command of Allah. If we do not repent on our past deeds it would be futile to hope any hope from Allah. Therefore, first we should beg forgiveness from Allah and then pledge to be obedient in future. In the last we should seek His help because without it nothing can be done.
