

WORK IS UNDERWAY IN THE TOWN OF EAST FISHKILL to transform the former Harry Talbot estate into the first Moslem community in the United States. In the photo top are some members of the Islamic Mission of America, who were at the southern Dutchess estate yesterday to help prepare the grounds for a dedication ceremony on Memorial day. From left to right are SELEMA ABDULRA RAHMAN, Brooklyn; Mrs. KABERAH ABDUL-RAHIM, wife of the manager of the estate; Miss DOLA GAZALY, Brooklyn; Mrs.

DAOUD AHMED FAISAL, wife of the Sheikh who heads the Islamic Mission; Sheikh DAOUD AHMED FAISAL, spiritual head of the Islamic Mission of America; ABDUL-RAHIM, the manager; and HAROOM ABDULLAH, of Philadelphia, who is assisting with work on the estate. In the lower photo is ABDUL-RAHIM, with his wife and five children. They are the first permanent residents in the Moslem community. The children are RASCHID, 9, JAMELAH, 7, HASSAN 6, AHMED, 4, and SAID, 1.